JUST FOR KIDS

Our children join us for worship in the main Sanctuary until they are called to the altar area for prayer. They will then attend Sunday School and will be supervised by our capable workers. Their special Bible lesson will conclude at the same time as the adult service.

On the first Sunday of each month (Communion Sunday) our children will stay with their parents in the main sanctuary for the entire service. Nursery will function as usual and be available every Sunday.

Nursery is supervised and available when the children are dismissed from the sanctuary.

Annual Business Meeting, Sunday Oct. 30, 12:00 pm. Nomination Slips are available today for suggested nominations for the Deacon Board

As a reminder there are five members on the Board of Deacons at ROCC. Presently, Ben Banfield, Wilfred Garrick, John Hageman, Yean Hoh, and Paul O'Brien are serving as elected deacons. We give a special thanks to all these men for their dedication and service. A member of the Board is permitted to serve three, two year terms, for a possible six consecutive years, and then they must take a one year sabbatical. John Hageman and Paul O'Brien have served one, two year tenure and are eligible for re-election this year. So there are two positions open for nomination this year. Only a member can suggest another member for the consideration of the Nomination Committee. Thanks!

I truly believe that eternity will reveal the importance of serving well as a deacon in the local church. It does involve a great deal of spiritual responsibility, including but not limited to: godly wisdom, patience, dedication, prayer, and sacrifice. Over the years I have watched how humble, dedicated, deacons have themselves grown in the Lord; mainly because the ministry of being a deacon plunges one into a spiritual soil that has the potential to generate spiritual maturity and growth. Coming along-side a Lead Pastor and together overseeing the Body of Christ is a great privilege and at the same time a sobering responsibility. This is God's Church so serving in any capacity is not so much a position as it is a spiritual function. Pastor Mills
